

August 26, 2017 Press Release

- Bleuzette Marshall, the current Vice President of Equity and Inclusion will be changing her title to “Vice President of Equity, Inclusion and Community Impact” to better reflect the role she plays in the UC community
- The UC Office of Governmental Affairs, Undergraduate Student Government and Graduate Student Government Association will be making joint statement on the Metro deal. We will be maintaining the EZ Ride Fare Pass, which will allow students to purchase a pass for free and ride the bus for $1 each time. An Educational Ridership Program will be created to improve understanding of Metro use.
- New printers are now available for use in TUC on the 3rd floor. This is thanks to Campus Services and University administration as a continued effort to improve printing services for all UC students
- Working to ensure every new building and all buildings with high usage (TUC, Steger, etc.) has gender neutral bathrooms. Hoping to ensure residence halls and academic buildings also have them
- The current undergraduate enrollment at UC is 34,267, which breaks a new record
- 6,400 students are living in university housing this year!
- We will be bringing back Bearcat Fridays, which is a pep rally with Bearcat Band and Athletics. The purpose is to promote Bearcat spirit on campus. We want to encourage students to wear red and black on Fridays. We will be working with Bearcat Band and Rallycats through Fall
